In some cases, we have moved into large-scale, coordinated health care systems, we've partnered with large employers and we've tried to make it attractive for employers to adopt wellness programs and incentives to encourage employees to participate. It's not something we've been able to really get going, obviously, but I think it's something that's possible. I think there's a lot of interest among the different boards in Vermont and other states. What we're looking for are ways that we can look at some of these things together, and if we could do some of this in a coordinated, joint fashion, where we're sharing some of these resources and these programs, that could obviously be really beneficial for us. I think that could be beneficial for the customer as well, though, as well as employers

Comment Many thanks for your great sharing. I've got a note. There should be some problems in using software that sucks power from the USB port. The program should be closed first so it won't speed up your PC, and your PC should be switched on. a large copy of the source code in your office and work on it around
