I am a serial number holder of the Pro version of Serviio, and have wanted to do a service.Auburn's Will Muschamp said he consulted with head athletic trainer Jeff Grimes before making the decision to start backup quarterback Sean White at Georgia. "I just talked to him about it," Muschamp said. "He was still up on the field and I said, 'Let me talk to him about it.' He came back to me right away and said he was all for it. The guys played well. We've had a chance to go through the plan. I thought he performed well." Muschamp said White will be the starter when he is cleared to return to practice and will be the backup if Nick Marshall is still dealing with an injury. The decision was made after White performed well in the Bulldogs' 27-23 win against Auburn. "I think (Georgia) played a good football game," Muschamp said. "They played a couple of tricks. When you get a little break you can change one or two plays and you have an advantage. They are a good team. They did a lot of things right. They were more physical at times than we were. They played physical football in the pocket and that's what they did. I thought they did a good job against us in terms of the physicality of the game." -- BOLTS REPORT: Auburn RB Tre Mason (shoulder) has a good chance to return for the Tide's Sept. 17 game against the Gators, Muschamp said. -- BOLTS REPORT: Florida could potentially be without freshman quarterback Treon Harris and safety Marcus Maye after redshirt freshman Feleipe Franks and true freshman Brandon Powell suffered injuries against Georgia. Both are expected to be sidelined a few weeks. -- BOLTS REPORT: Georgia defensive lineman Anthony Johnson sat out the final 2:24 of the Bulldogs' win against Auburn with a leg injury. He is listed as questionable for the Iron Bowl. -- BOLTS REPORT: After Georgia's fast start against Auburn, offensive coordinator Jim Chaney Jr. said the Bulldogs aren't satisfied with their play on offense, citing a lack of execution and discipline. But he
