In this case I need to select items in a List which have a certain amount of x units. I can do the following: `object[] myArray = { new object() { x = 100 }, new object() { x = 100 }, new object() { x = 50 }, new object() { x = 150 } }; var results = from m in myArray where (m.x / 3) >= 50 select m; foreach (var result in results) { MessageBox.Show(result.ToString()); } Which returns the following result: {x=100, x=50, x=150} I would like to find a way to make the where clause look like the following: where (m.x / 3) >= 50 I have read the following post. The album was released on September 19, 2008, through the band's label, Tooth & Nail Records.[1] It was preceded by the release of two singles, "Bring It on Home" and "Gone", the latter of which became a huge hit in the United States, going on to win the Grammy Award for Best Rock Gospel Song. "Gone" became a major concert hit, appearing on the mainstage at 10,000 Voices of Hope and Faith in Hollywood, Nevada.[2] The album has seen significant success, the song "Gone" appearing on the Billboard 200 chart, as well as garnering 2 Platinum awards.[3] The band's first studio album since the Platinum-selling album Comatose, Awake was a step forward in their musical direction. In this album the band made a conscious effort to focus more on the group sound and rock-oriented songwriting. Awake also featured a more dance/electronic sound and a markedly less heavy approach than on previous albums. As a whole, Awake received generally positive reviews from music critics, who considered the band to have continued their streak of solid albums, especially after the success of "Gone".[4] After the release of Awake, the band headed out on a massive U.S. tour, which was a huge success, selling out several shows.[5] The band's U.S. commercial debut, "Gone" was released as the first single. It was supported by the Best I.E.V.E. (In Every Verse Evolve) Christian Rock Song Award, a yearly award bestowed on the band for "Gone". The subsequent Best I.E.V.E. song and video award to the band was "Only One",[6] a song which won the award at the 2008 Dove Awards. 595f342e71
