the selection below. Yeah it was a pretty good time to get out. I was driving down the Eddy and they had the chalk line marks all the way out there. I then went and played a full 6 hours at Ozark, bringing home my 4th 1500 in a row. I had a hard time getting through the draw. It was hard to find my lines. But I made 1530 and a new course record. The course is huge, but I'll give it another shot. I've played it in the past but I'm sure I'll be better this time. Also I should have played it pretty early in the morning, at least an hour before the crowds started showing. I had to move the dirt so my discs wouldn't be getting pushed around so much. New dirt is finished though, so we are good to go. Poured a cement driveway between the Tee pad and the Tee box, should keep everything on track. Then I got home after playing the Eddy and I got to work on the
